

GOOSE DOWNS FARM, INC.

Presents

The Frostbite Clinic With

SALLY O'CONNOR

DATES: MARCH 17 & 18, 2012

Instructor Sally O'Connor has enjoyed a lifetime involvement with horses both in Eventing and Dressage. She has served as an F.E.I. judge, and is currently an F.E.I. Steward in both disciplines, and is both a USEF "I" Dressage judge, and "R" Eventing judge. She Evented extensively in the 1960s and 1970s and is currently showing horses at all levels in Dressage. Her horse, Open Road, was Prix St. George Champion in Florida.

Sally is a prolific writer, having written Practical Eventing, Common Sense Dressage, as well as numerous articles on both Dressage and Eventing. Her son, David, was on the Silver Medal Team at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta, in 1997 won the Badminton 3-Day Event, won the Individual Gold Medal in Sidney, and was on the Gold Medal Team at the 2002 World Equestrian Games in Spain.

Her background is purely classical. She studied with Franz Rockowansky, Nuno Olivera and Bengt Ljungquist. Sally moved to Draper, Utah to pioneer Dressage and Eventing in a new facility where her students competed successfully in both disciplines. Several years ago, she returned to the East Coast to be near her children and grandchild.

Sally has served on the boards of the Potomac Valley Dressage Association, the United States Dressage Federation, the United States Pony Club, and the USCTA as Vice President of Education, and Sally has written the current Eventing Dressage Tests.
